VICTORIAN SENIORS' FESTIVAL

You may have seen our mention in this year's Victorian Seniors' Festival handbook where U3A Wheelers Hill is featured for a joint event with Aveo Oak Tree Hill Retirement village on next Friday, 14th October. Some of you will know that we hold 2 classes at this retirement village – Taboo Topics (Judy Cox, tutor) and Keyboard Music (Graeme Kinzett).

On the day, I will be presenting and introducing our group, U3A Wheelers Hill, the benefits of the University of 3rd Age to the ageing community, the courses we offer, enrolments and details of how we operate.

On the day, Timothy Tsui, (Art tutor), will be holding some art and drawing participation with interested attendees and Cassiely Chuah, (Line dancing tutor and Vice-President), will be leading some line dancing activities. I encourage you to come and join in the fun. Aveo has also kindly organised refreshments throughout the event and a BBQ to follow, at 12pm.

So far, we are expecting around 50 people (including residents at the village and other visiting seniors). As I indicated in earlier communications, you do need to book. See details in the attached brochure.

Looking forward to see you there on Friday, 14th October at Oak Tree Hill Retirement village (37 View Mount Road, Gate A, Glen Waverley). The event starts at 10am through to 12 noon, followed by a BBQ.

Remember to book! Call 03-91338788 or email eventsvic@aveo.com.au
